To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Rebecca Stearns and I used Mr. James Rindfleisch from IRS Help, Inc. My situation was extremely complex and included me being separated from my husband for several years, a very old tax return that was never filed, a missing W-2 and wage garnishment. Mr. Rindfleisch handled investigating what entity was garnishing and dealing with both the Federal government and State on my behalf.

He kept me informed via email of what was happening and exactly what information he needed from me in order for him to move forward. It took a while for things to be sorted out but just as he said, my garnishment was lifted and NYS returned the money they took from me. It was literally thousands of dollars!!!

I am finally where I need to be financially and a huge relief is off my shoulders. I would highly recommend IRS Help, Inc. for your tax issues.

Sincerely,

Rebecca Stearns

To Whom It May Concern

It's my absolute pleasure to recommend James Rindfleisch and IRS Help Inc. to any individual or business that has found themselves or itself in a tax debt situation. There is simply no pressure like the pressure the IRS can place on an individual or business when tax challenges arise.

My association with Jim stretches over many years, requiring his expertise and guidance to resolve both business and personal tax matters. He has been a valuable asset to me in not only resolving the matters but in keeping the powers of the IRS away from me.

His knowledge and expertise in tax law and various tax matters was a huge advantage to me during some very trying times. He put his skillset to work to resolve millions of dollars in 6672 tax matters as well as thousands of dollars in 1040 tax matters.

Without a doubt, I confidently recommend Jim and IRS Help Inc.

Please feel free to contact me should you like to discuss my experience with Jim further. I'd be happy to expand on my recommendation.

Best Wishes,

Dear Jim,

This letter is intended to express my appreciation and gratitude to Jack O'Neill and Jim Rindfleisch of IRS Help Inc., for the assistance they provided myself and my wife with the IRS audit. Upon notification of said audit, I contacted Jack O'Neill, a former business associate, who immediately introduced us to Jim Rindfleisch. Jim was able to negotiate a settlement with the IRS and then New York State. His experience and knowledge of the IRS code, together with his relationship with the IRS audit team and managers, was invaluable to our outcome. Jim's professionalism and compassion went a long way in curtailing the fears, trials, and tribulations of an IRS audit.

It is my pleasure to recommend IRS Help Inc. and, in particular, Jim Rindfleisch to assist anyone with a similar IRS issue. Their company offers top-notch service and reasonable rates. My wife and I were extremely impressed with their quality of work. We could not have accomplished our favorable outcome without their assistance.

Again, thank you for such an outstanding performance. With deep appreciation for a job well done.

Regards,

Denny & Jackie

Hi,

My name is Nathan Edwards, I was referred to James Rindfleisch with IRS Help Inc by my CPA , I was years behind on unpaid taxes, 15 years and $120,000 to be exact.

I met with James to discuss my unpaid taxes and he took the time to explain to me in detail how the offer in compromise would work and what to expect. I was so nervous about the whole thing at first, thinking... what if it doesn't go through and how would I pay it all back if they refused it. James was very professional and his knowledge, confidence and years of experience in the business help put those thoughts at ease.

All those years of stressing about taxes, threatening letters, liens on my credit report, are all gone now. It has been a lengthy process but in the end it was worth the time and money. My final offer settlement I paid out was only $1,984, BIG difference from what I owed. Im on the right track now with my taxes and wish I would've done this years ago.

P.S. Thanks again James for everything you have done, I will definitely refer anyone I talk to that needs tax help your way.

Attention: Someone who needs Professional Tax Assistance

Owing Taxes can be a very stressful experience, affecting both your personal life, as well as your business.

Often it can also impact your family, and your relationship with your wife.

Personal circumstance, (medical expenses), made it impossible for me to meet my tax obligations. My Daughter became very sick.

Medical expenses were not covered by Medical Plans.

In order to pay for the treatments, I was unable to pay my taxes for several years, resulting in back tax obligation, as well as the compounding penalty and interest charges.

The end result was a $500,000 plus tax owing.

Letters from the IRS, State, and City created a stress level, that pushed me to the break point.

A friend of mine, suggested that I contact an organization who would work with me, to resolve the tax.

I was fortunate to contact IRS Help. After several meetings with Jim Rindfleisch, I felt confident that Jim and his organization, would be able to assist me, to resolve my situation.

What a relief to have Jim, correspond on my behalf with the Tax Authorities.

Jim laid out a plan, that afforded me the time to reserve cash, putting me in a position, for Jim to submit an Offer of Compromise, on my behalf.

The original offer was rejected.

Jim restricted another offer which was also rejected.

Jim (not one to give up), set a meeting, with the IRS Officer to discuss the offer. The outcome, was a negotiated settlement (50%) reduction of my tax.

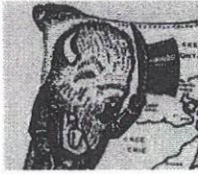

I am pleased to say, that with Jim's help, I am now current on all of my taxes.

In summary, I strongly recommend that you reach out to Jim, and his organization.

A word of caution. There are a lot of scam organizations, who promise ten percent on the dollar settlements.

Be careful.

Spend your time, with a Professional – Jim Rindfleisch.

RE: MY TAX CASE

JIM

AS OF 6-28-2017 I AM IN RECEIPT OF MY TAX LIEN RELEASES FOR THE YEARS 2002 THROUGH 2011.

IN THE NOW FAMOUS WORDS OF JAMES COMEY I CAN ALSO SAY::

LORDY !!!!

This is just a quick note to express my thanks and appreciation to you and your staff for making this happen in the time frame proposed in our first meeting and with no drama or surprises along the way.

I want you know that I stand ready to personally recommend and encourage any prospective future clients of yours to have confidence in your firm and in your ability to deliver what you say. That is a rare commodity these days with all the impersonal approaches to client service.

Jim, please feel free to call on me to help in any way I can to support the future success of your firm !

It has been a pleasure working with you and IRS HELP over the last year.

I solicited the assistance of IRS Help in the late 1990s as a result of bad decisions made by my ex-business partner. We were in dire straits as a result of unpaid payroll taxes; the IRS was aggressively pursuing my company. James Rindfleisch, through IRS Help, interjected and dealt with the IRS effectively and efficiently. He acted as the sole liaison between my company and the IRS and protected my company from garnishments and aggressive tactics that would have bankrupted us. Additionally, we were able to concentrate on our work and not have to worry anymore; my company was taken out of the crosshairs and allowed to flourish. Jim is a veteran at dealing with these issues with many analogous instances to draw from that allow him to manage the IRS. If it was not for Jim, I do not think my company would have survived the IRS issues and I would have been personally bankrupt. Jim became a friend that I wish I knew from better circumstances, but I will never forget what he done for me and my company.

Thank you for everything,
